SCHEDULE A TO WARRANT AGREEMENT - KEY EMPLOYEE SHAREHOLDERS' AGREEMENT

J.nr. 333767-SOL

1. Effectiveness of the Agreement

1.1 Reference is made to the Warrant Agreement entered into between the Employee and ARIS Robotics ApS. Capitalized terms used in this Agreement but not otherwise defined shall have the definitions ascribed to them in the Warrant Agreement.

1.2 This Key Employee Shareholders' Agreement (the "Agreement") enters into force and becomes binding on the Employee upon the Employee's exercise of Warrants in the Company and thus in connection with the Employee becoming a shareholder in the Company.

1.3 The provisions of this Agreement are enforceable against the Employee by the Company and any shareholder of the Company which holds more than 10 % of the outstanding shares in the Company (such shareholder a "Majority Shareholder" and jointly the "Majority Shareholders") at any relevant point in time. To the extent that the Majority Shareholders have a right in accordance with this Agreement, such right can be invoked by a simple majority of the shareholdings of such Majority Shareholders.

1.4 Certain other of the Company's shareholders, including the Majority Shareholders have entered into an alternative shareholders' agreement. Nothing in this agreement shall limit the Majority Shareholders from entering into such alternative shareholders' agreements with new or existing shareholders in the Company.

1.5 The Purpose of this Agreement is to establish certain rights and obligations of the Employee related to the Employee's ownership of shares (the "Shares") in the Company.

1.6 This agreement will remain effective for as long as the Employee owns Shares in the Company.

2. Key Employee Holding Company

2.1 The Employee shall have a right – but not an obligation - to transfer its entire holding of shares in the Company to a Danish limited liability wholly owned by the Employee (an "Employee Holding Company"). To the extent that the Employee has exercised its right to transfer its Shares to an Employee Holding Company, the provisions of this Agreement that applies to the Employee shall apply to such Employee Holding Company correspondingly, and vice versa. The Employee shall procure that its Employee Holding Company (i) remains a controlled 100% by the Employee during the term of the Agreement and (ii) takes every action required in order to comply with this Agreement. The Employee shall be jointly and severally liable, and in all matters identified, with its Employee Holding Company in respect of any and all obligations undertaken by an Employee pursuant to this Agreement.

2.2 The transfer of the Employee's Shares to an Employee Holding Company is subject to:

(i) the Employee Holding Company adhering to the Employee's rights and obligations under this Agreement by signing an accession agreement in the discretion of the Company's board of directors (the "Board");

(ii) the Employee documenting that the Employee owns all of the shares and voting rights in the Employee Holding Company, such documentation to be sent for the approval of the Board prior to the transfer of Shares;

(iii) the Employee Holding Company does not have any other activities than the ownership of the Shares unless approved in writing by the Board; and

(iv) the Employee accepts to comply with clause 2.1 during the term of this Agreement.

2.3 The Employee shall use its best efforts to secure that he/she is not deprived of his shares in its Employee Holding Company through a division of marital property during marriage or in conjunction with a divorce and will not conduct any business that would jeopardize its holding of shares in the Employee Holding Company.

2.4 If the Employee is no longer employed by the Company, the Employee Holding Company is obligated to comply with clause 8 regarding the transfer of Shares.

2.5 Any breach of the obligations set out in this clause 2 shall be considered a material breach of this Agreement.

3. Issuance of Shares or securities

3.1 The Company and the Majority Shareholders shall not be limited from issuing shares or other securities in the Company, including at a favorable price (in Danish: "favørkurs").

3.2 In connection with the issuance of shares against cash contribution in the Company (no other form of securities), the Employee shall be entitled to exercise pre-emption rights by subscribing for such new shares (within the share class to which the Employee's Shares currently belong) on a pro rata basis based on the Employee's ownership of shares at the date of issuance of the relevant new shares. Unless the Majority Shareholders decides otherwise, this pre-emption right shall not apply in connection with an issuance of shares if such shares are to subscribed by or issued in any of the following scenarios where the new shares (i) are issued to or subscribed for by new or existing employees, executive directors, board members, consultants etc., of the Company (or a subsidiary) in connection with the implementation of any an incentive program (irrespective of the applied subscription price), (ii) are issued as consideration in connection with a full or partial acquisition (shares or assets) of a company or business by the Company (or a subsidiary) (irrespective of the applied subscription price), (iii) are issued in a situation where the Company or any subsidiary in the reasonable opinion of the Board requires immediate cash funding for the purpose of meeting a current or future liabilities or obligations, or (iii) are issued at a price that is not a favourable price. In each of these scenarios, the Employee shall be obligated on the request of the Majority Shareholders to waive any pre-emption rights (including statutory rights) and accept pro rata dilution.

4. Transfer of shares

4.1 Except for Transfers of Shares in accordance with clauses 2 and 4, the Employee's Shares in the Company, including any pre-emption rights attaching to the Shares, are non-transferable and cannot be assigned to a third party, be pledged or made subject to encumbrance, debt enforcement or any other form of execution.

4.2 If the Shares are Transferred in contravention of the terms or principles of this Agreement such Transfer shall be considered as a material breach of this Agreement (as defined below).

5. Exit

5.1 The Majority Shareholders shall in its own discretion have the right to decide the timing, manner, and terms of any Exit (as defined in the Warrant Agreement).

5.2 The Employee hereby grant the Majority Shareholders the sole control and power of attorney to facilitate, negotiate and complete an Exit on behalf of the Employee and to receive any cash payment or purchase price paid in connection with such Exit on behalf of the Employee for distribution after deduction of any purchase price adjustment, pro rata transaction costs and other fees or charges.

5.3 The Employee shall to the extent requested by the Majority Shareholders co-operate with the Company and the Majority Shareholders in effecting the Exit, which includes, inter alia, (i) preparing marketing documents, (ii) making investor presentations, (iii) participation in due diligence interviews, (iv) providing information to prospective investors, (v) providing appropriate and customary warranties if requested by the Company or the Majority Shareholders (subject to reasonable limitations and the opportunity to provide full disclosure), (vi) agreeing to customary lock-up obligations as further set out in clause 5.5, and (vii) participating in pro rata down-sale in the event of an IPO.

5.4 The Majority Shareholders may procure, and effect restructurings or reorganizations of the Company reasonably required to enable an Exit ("Restructuring"). The Employee shall vote for proposals required to effect the Restructuring at general meetings of the Company, including waiving any form or notice requirements in the Danish Companies Act or the articles of association related to the general meeting at which the Restructuring is to be adopted. Further, upon the Majority Shareholders' request, the Employee must transfer its Shares to other holding entities as part of such Restructuring, provided, that (i) the Employee's pro rata ownership, economic and voting interest in such holding entity shall be the same as in the Company at the time of the transfer implemented as part of the Restructuring, (ii) this Agreement shall be adjusted to such new structure without materially adversely impacting the legal, tax and economic position of the Employee or, upon request of the Majority Shareholders, be replaced by a new agreement substantially in the form hereof with the required adjustments to the new structure, and (iii) the Restructuring does not materially adversely affect the Employee's economic or tax position, including, for the avoidance of doubt, in the form of an increase in taxation payable upon an Exit. It is understood that any such Restructuring does not in itself constitute a scenario triggering an Exit.

5.5 Exit by way of an IPO

5.5.1 The Majority Shareholders shall give written notice (the "IPO Notice") to the Employee of its intention to Exit by way of initial public offering of its shares on a regulated market or a multilateral trading facility (an "IPO"). The IPO Notice shall set out the expected number of Shares to be sold by the shareholders and/or issued by the Company, respectively, the expected pricing range for shares to be sold or issued and other terms and conditions.

5.5.2 Upon receipt of the IPO Notice, the Employee shall be bound to execute and deliver any and all documents, including making customary selling shareholder's warranties provided that such apply in all materiality to all shareholders, reasonably necessary to complete the IPO and to transfer its Shares in accordance with the terms described in the prospectus to be published in connection with the IPO at the same price and upon terms and conditions identical in all aspects to those applicable to the Majority Shareholders, and upon request by the Majority Shareholders bear and contribute up to the relevant Employee's pro rata (to the Shares sold in connection with such IPO) portion of the transaction costs related to the IPO.

5.5.3 If the Employee do not, within 5 business days of being required to do so, execute and deliver the necessary documents and transfers in respect of the IPO, then the Majority Shareholders shall be entitled to execute, and shall be entitled to authorise and instruct such person as the Majority Shareholders consider fit to execute, the necessary documents and transfer(s) on behalf of the relevant Employee and against receipt by the Company (on behalf of the Employee) of the consideration payable for the relevant shares, deliver such shares and register the acquirer(s) as the holder thereof.

5.5.4 In case of an IPO, the shareholders shall sell down on a pro rata basis and undertake customary sell-down obligations.

6. Drag-Along

6.1 In connection with an Exit or if the Majority Shareholders in any other event intends to sell all or a part of its Shares to an independent bona fide third party, the Majority Shareholders shall have a right – but not an obligation – to require that the Employee transfers, in the Majority Shareholders' discretion, either all or a proportionate amount of the Employee's Shares (i.e., a drag-along right). If the Majority Shareholders exercises this drag-along right, the Employee shall be obligated to transfer the dragged Shares, and the transfer shall be made on substantially the same terms and conditions as accepted by the Majority Shareholders. The Majority Shareholders shall exercise this drag-along by giving written notice to the Employee no later than 5 Business Days prior to the closing date of the Exit or the sale of the Majority Shareholders' shares, as applicable.

6.2 Upon receiving the drag along notice from the Majority Shareholders, the Employee shall be obligated to sign the relevant transaction documents such as any applicable share purchase agreement, and to accept to pay pro rata transaction costs and other fees and charges.

6.3 The Majority Shareholders are hereby granted an irrevocable power of attorney:

(a) to consummate a transfer of dragged Shares (including, inter alia, to sign any relevant documents on behalf of the Employee and update the share register and warrant register accordingly); and

(b) to appoint a representative to act as the representative of the Employee in relation to all matters under the relevant share purchase agreement and other transaction documents, including in relation to any notices, waivers, agreements, disputes, and other communication.

6.4 Any breach of the obligations by the Employee set out in this clause 6 shall be considered a material breach of this Agreement.

7. Tag-Along

7.1 In the event of an Exit by way of the Majority Shareholders' sale of a controlling part of the share in the Company, the Employee shall have the right to participate (i.e., a tag-long right). If the Employee exercises its tag-along right, the Majority Shareholders shall in their own discretion be entitled to determine if the Employee shall participate with all its Shares, or a proportionate part corresponding to the part of the Majority Shareholders' shares which the Majority Shareholders intends to sell.

7.2 The Majority Shareholders shall not be permitted to transfer their shares before an offer (the "Tag-Along Offer") has been made by the prospective buyer of the Majority Shareholders' shares to the Employee to acquire the relevant amount of the Employee's Shares (as determined by the Majority Shareholders as set out in clause 7.1) on substantially the same terms as the Majority Shareholders. The Tag-Along Offer must be open for at least 5 business days.

7.3 The Employee's tag-along right shall be exercisable by delivery of a written notice to the Majority Shareholders prior to the expiration of the period set out in the Tag-Along Offer. The notice must expressly state that the Employee wishes to sell his shares on the terms and conditions set out in the Tag-Along Offer.

7.4 Failure to give such tag-along notice, including if the approval to sell the Employee's as set out in the notice is not in full compliance with the terms and condition set out in the Tag-Along Offer, then the Employee shall be deemed as having waived the Employee's tag-along rights under this clause 7.

7.5 This clause 7 shall not apply if the Majority Shareholder exercises its drag-along rights set out in clause 6.

8. Call and Put Option

8.1 The Majority Shareholders are hereby granted a right – but not an obligation – to purchase (or designate a purchaser of) all, but not part of, an Employee's shares in the Company (the "Call Option") which may be exercised in the following situations:

(A) The Employee or the Employee Holding Company, where and as applicable, becomes insolvent, is declared bankrupt, has (if applicable) filed (or has had filed against it) a petition for winding-up, has initiated proceedings with respect to a compromise or arrangement with his creditors, suspends his payments or is otherwise found to be unable to pay his debts;

(B) The Employee is in material breach of this Agreement;

(C) the Employee becomes a Good Leaver (as defined in the Warrant Agreement); and

(D) the Employee becomes a Bad Leaver (as defined in the Warrant Agreement).

8.2 The Employee is hereby granted a right – but not an obligation – to sell all, but not part of, the Employee's Shares in the Company (the "Put Option”) which may be exercised in the event that the Employee becomes a Good Leaver (as defined in the Warrant Agreement).

8.3 The purchase price for the Employee’s Shares when exercising the Call Option or the Put Option in connection with the Employee being a Good Leaver or Bad Leaver shall be the Fair Market Value at the time when the Majority Shareholders became aware of the event triggering the Call Option or the Put Option, as applicable.

8.4 The purchase price for the Employee-Shares when exercising the Call Option in connection with the Employee being a in material breach of this agreement the Fair Market Value with a deduction of 40%.

8.5 Fair Market Value

8.5.1 The Fair Market Value of the Company is determined by the Board in its reasonable discretion.

8.5.2 The Employee and the Majority Shareholders accept that the Board’s Fair Market Valuation is final and binding and undertakes not to initiate court proceedings or otherwise take legal action against the valuation unless a manifest error can be established.

8.5.3 In the event that the Majority Shareholders designates the Company as the purchaser of shares in connection with an exercise of the Call Option, the Company may – in its sole discretion and if relevant - on behalf of the Employee apply for an exemption from dividend taxation pursuant to section 16b of the Danish Tax Assessments Act (in Danish “ligningsloven”). The expenses relating to the application shall be borne by the Company.

9. Power of attorney

9.1 General meetings

9.1.1 The Employee and the Employee Holding Company, as applicable, hereby grants the Majority Shareholders or a representative appointed the Majority Shareholders, with full substitution rights, a power-of-attorney, to on behalf of the respective Employee and Employee Holding Company, as applicable and in its name:

(A) Take any action or waive any requirements as to right of participation, right to receive information, form, place, language, and notice of any general meeting in the Company as set out in the Danish Companies Act or the articles of association, as amended from time to time.

(B) Represent and vote on the Employee or Employee Holding Company’s Shares at any general meeting in the Company, irrespective of the matters on the agenda and including in connection with general meetings held by written procedure.

9.1.2 The date of this power of attorney shall for the purpose of the Danish Companies Act section 80(2) be deemed as the date that his Agreement becomes effective.

9.1.3 The Majority Shareholders shall be entitled to present this Agreement where necessary to evidence the existence of this and this Agreement shall in such case be considered as a written power of attorney in compliance with the Danish Companies Act section 80(2).

9.1.4 This power of attorney shall be revocable at any time. The revocation of the power of attorney must be made in writing and can be made by notification to the Company. The Employee and, if applicable, the Employee Holding Company shall indemnify and hold harmless the Majority Shareholders from and against any liability incurred by the Majority Shareholders in its exercise of the powers under this power of attorney.

9.2 Powers of attorney in connection with an Exit

9.2.1 In the event of an Exit or in connection with the preparation of an Exit, the Majority Shareholders or a representative appointed by the Majority Shareholders, with substitution right, is on the terms and conditions set out in this Agreement hereby irrevocably authorized to finally settle and determine the nature, structure, price, other terms and conditions and timing for the Exit, including the representations, warranties, indemnities, covenants and other terms and conditions of any agreement for the Exit.

9.2.2 In connection with the Exit process, and in connection with exercise of a Call Option, the Majority Shareholders shall be irrevocably authorized to enter into and execute all necessary or desirable agreements regarding transfer of ownership, lock-up agreements, escrow agreements, agreements with providers of W&I insurance, shareholders' resolutions and all other documents and agreements necessary or desirable to complete an Exit or the transfer of Shares in connection with an exercise of an Call Option, on behalf of the Employee or the Employee Holding Companies, as applicable.

9.2.3 In connection with an Exit, the Majority Shareholders are instructed to use their discretionary judgment in line with the terms of this Agreement when agreeing to the terms and conditions of the agreements and documents relating to the Exit as described in clause 9.2.2.

9.2.4 The Employee or the Employee Holding Company undertake to cooperate and to execute and deliver all agreements and documents as may be reasonably requested by the Majority Shareholders under this clause 9.2.

9.3 Exercise of power of attorney

9.3.1 In exercising its powers of attorney, the Majority Shareholders undertakes to always act reasonably and in line with the principles set out in the Agreement.

10. Confidentiality

10.1 The Employee undertakes:

(a) not to at any time hereafter divulge or communicate to any person the existence or contents of this Agreement, except in relation to a permitted transfer under this Agreement;

(b) not to at any time hereafter divulge or communicate to any person any confidential information which may be within, or which may come to, its knowledge (other than, where relevant, to their officers, employees or professional advisers, whose position makes it necessary to know the same);

(c) to use their best endeavors to prevent the publication or disclosure of any confidential information; and

(d) not to do anything to harm the goodwill of the Company.

10.2 The undertaking in clause 10.1 does not apply with respect to:

(a) information that at the time of disclosure is public knowledge, or

(b) disclosure, which is required by law, regulation (including the contract of any recognized stock exchange) or order of a court of a competent jurisdiction, or which is otherwise necessary to enforce one's rights.

11. Breach

11.1 If the Employee is in material breach of this Agreement and such material breach is not remedied within 10 business Days after the breaching Party has received written notice from the Majority Shareholders, the Majority Shareholders shall have the remedies available to such to the Majority Shareholder under this Agreement and Danish law and in addition to this the Majority Shareholders shall have the right to exercise the Call Option.

12. Supremacy of this Agreement

12.1 Where the provisions of the articles of association (from time to time) of the Company conflicts with the provisions of this Agreement, the Parties hereby agree that it is their intention that the provisions of this Agreement shall prevail over the articles of association.

13. Governing law and dispute resolution

13.1 This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the substantive laws of Denmark disregarding any principles on the choice of law.

13.2 Disputes shall be referred to resolution by the Danish Courts.
